The Backs: by Queen's Bridge

Dropping down the river,
Down the glancing river,
Thro' the fleet of shallops,
Underneath the bridges,
Carven stone and oaken,
Carved with spikers & pillars,
Turning town into farm,
Stooping towards meadow,
Flittering bank to bank;
Mixed the golden roadside
Haunts the stately team,
Reaching out their limbs
Across & overhead to
Whitest the wind-mill heavy
With the blossoms-o'-snow,
Until at the weeds were singing
From their shaplen mills.
